Haven House

STRONG YOUTH. BRIGHT FUTURES.

For many of the young people we serve, one moment can change the direction of their lives. They are facing homelessness, a mental health crisis, or trouble at home or school, and their resilience is remarkable, but resilience alone is rarely enough. As a Haven House 2027 Gala Sponsor, you fund the shelter, counseling, life skills, and support that move youth from crisis to stability. Join us in the moment that matters.

MEET TY

At 17, Ty had nowhere safe to go. After his father died, things at home fell apart and he ran away, sleeping outside for several days before he was connected by a teacher to Wrenn House. Over several weeks, our staff and clinical coordinator worked alongside him, helping him process his grief, rebuild communication with his family, and build a plan for what came next. He arrived with nowhere to turn and left with a way forward. For Ty, his stay at Wrenn House was a moment that mattered.

MEET KARA

When Kara came to Haven House, she was 8 months pregnant and sleeping in her car. Her relationship with her parents was strained, and she was unable to work. With the help of her case manager, Kara secured safe housing within a month of working with our Transition In Place (TIP) program. After the birth of her child, Haven House helped her to furnish her apartment, find childcare, obtain a laptop, improve her financial literacy, apply for medical benefits, and obtain employment. Kara graduated high school while in the TIP program. She also took steps to repair her relationship with her parents. Kara credits Haven House with helping her access the resources and learn skills she needed to weather life's challenges.

THE MOMENT THAT MATTERS

MARCH 21, 2027

WESTIN RALEIGH DURHAM BRIER CREEK

For a young person in crisis, the difference between a hard season and a lasting setback often comes down to whether someone steps in at the right time. For many of the young people Haven House serves, there is a critical moment, a turning point where support can change everything. Your sponsorship helps us show up at that moment and stay for as long as it takes.

Join Haven House supporters, volunteers, and staff for an evening of appetizers, dinner, and drinks as we honor key supporters, share our impact, and unveil our vision for addressing youth homelessness in our community.
